Directions: Read the passage. Then answer the questions below.

For two months, I have been trying to decide who makes the best ice cream. I have narrowed it down to my four favorite manufacturers: Randolph Farms, Goodies, Disco, and Twinkle.

Let's start with Randolph Farms. Randolph Farms makes very good ice cream. They have lots of different flavors, but this doesn't really matter to me. That's because I always get coffee flavor. They make the best coffee ice cream in the world. I've never had hot coffee (the drink) but people tell me that Randolph Farms coffee ice cream tastes just like the real thing. Also, Randolph Farms uses all natural ingredients to make their ice cream. This is a good idea, I think.

Second, we have Goodies. Goodies makes excellent ice cream. Like Randolph Farms, Goodies uses all natural ingredients. They only make three different flavors—strawberry, vanilla, and chocolate—but they make them very well. The strawberry is amazing. Every bite of it reminds me of the strawberries that I used to pick behind my old house. The vanilla is wonderful. It is very smooth and has a refreshing, creamy taste. The chocolate is outstanding. It is made with real cocoa beans from Bolivia. I didn't know where Bolivia is so I decided to look for it on a map. After hunting awhile, I discovered that it is in South America! That's a long way to go to get cocoa, so it must be good. I would say that the only drawback to Goodies ice cream is that they only make three different flavors.

Third, we have Disco. Disco ice cream is okay. They don't have many good flavors. Actually, the only Disco flavor I like is Bubblegum. It is vanilla ice cream with little chunks of bubblegum in it. After you eat the ice cream, you can blow bubbles with the gum. That's pretty fun.

Finally, there is Twinkle. Twinkle ice cream is mediocre. The only good thing about Twinkle is that it is relatively inexpensive. You can buy a whole carton of twinkle ice cream for $4.50. That's only two weeks' allowance for me.

Answers and Explanations

1) D

A good title summarizes the main idea of the passage and lets the reader know what to expect should he or she continue reading. At the beginning of the passage the author writes, "For two months, I have been trying to decide who makes the best ice cream." The next four paragraphs explain the reasons why the narrator likes each individual manufacturer. We can understand from this information that the passage is about picking the best ice cream manufacturer. Choice (D) is correct. (A) is incorrect because it only states 4 flavors of ice cream, while the passage is about more than just ice cream flavors. (B) is incorrect because the author is trying to decide which of the four manufacturers is the best, not inform us about the world's four best manufacturers. (C) is incorrect because the author is trying to decide who the best ice cream maker is, not which ice cream is the best.

2) A

In paragraph 2 the author discusses Randolph Farms ice cream. The author tells us that "They make the best coffee ice cream in the world." Using this information, we can understand that the author would probably go to Randolph Farms to get a scoop of coffee ice cream. This means (A) is correct. In paragraph 3 the author discusses Goodies ice cream. The author tells us that "They only make three different flavors—strawberry, vanilla, and chocolate." Since Goodies does not make coffee ice cream, this rules out choice (B). Bubblegum is the only flavor of Disco ice cream that the author likes. This rules out (C). In paragraph 5, we learn that the author thinks that all Twinkle ice cream is "mediocre." Therefore the author would probably not go to Twinkle for coffee ice cream. This rules out (D).

3) C

(C) is correct because the part of the sentence that comes after the colon contains a list that gives us more detailed information about the idea presented before the colon. This fits the description of a colon as explained in the question and as used in the passage. Choices (A) and (B) are incorrect because the part of the sentence that comes before the colon cannot stand alone as a sentence. The part after the colon is necessary to complete the idea started before the colon. (D) is incorrect because the part of the sentence that comes after the colon does not give more information about the idea introduced before the colon.

4) A

In paragraph 2, the author writes, "Randolph Farms uses all natural ingredients to make their ice cream. This is a good idea, I think." We can understand from this information that one of the things the author likes about Randolph Farms ice cream is that it is made using all natural ingredients. This supports option (I). In paragraph 3 the author tells us that Goodies' chocolate ice cream is "is made with real cocoa beans from Bolivia." Nothing in the passage supports the idea that Randolph Farms makes their ice cream in Bolivia. This eliminates option (II). In paragraph 2, the author writes that Randolph Farms has "lots of different flavors, but this doesn't really matter to me." This eliminates option (III). Therefore (A) is correct.

5) C

To answer this question correctly, it helps to use context. In paragraph 3 the author discusses Goodies chocolate ice cream. The author tells us that Goodies gets their cocoa from Bolivia. This is a long way from the author's home. Because of this, the author concludes that this cocoa must be good. Using this information, we can understand that the author believes that things that are hard to get must be high quality. This makes (C) the correct choice. The passage does not provide information to support choices (A), (B), and (D). Therefore they are incorrect.

6) B

In paragraph 4, the author says, "the only Disco flavor I like is Bubblegum. It is vanilla ice cream with little chunks of bubblegum in it. After you eat the ice cream, you can blow bubbles with the gum. That's pretty fun." This lets us know that the author likes bubblegum ice cream because you can blow bubbles with the gum after you eat the ice cream. Since bubblegum is the only Disco ice cream that the author likes, we can understand that the author likes Disco ice cream because it has bubblegum in it. This means (B) is correct. The author likes Twinkle ice cream because it is inexpensive, not Disco. This rules out (A). No ice cream is made in Bolivia. Bolivia is where Goodies gets cocoa beans. This means (C) is incorrect. In paragraph 4 the author does say that Disco ice cream "is okay," but this is not why the author likes Disco. This means (D) is incorrect.

7) A

In paragraph 2, the author says that Randolph Farms has "lots of different flavors." On the other hand, in paragraph 3 the author says that Goodies only makes "three different flavors—strawberry, vanilla, and chocolate..." Using this information, we can understand that Randolph Farms has many different flavors and Goodies does not. This supports option (I). In paragraph 2 the author says, "Randolph Farms uses all natural ingredients to make their ice cream." In paragraph 3 the author says, "Like Randolph Farms, Goodies uses all natural ingredients." Using this information, we can understand that both Randolph Farms and Goodies use all natural ingredients. This eliminates option (II). Although the passage says in paragraph 5 that Twinkle ice cream "is relatively inexpensive," it does not mention the price of Randolph Farms nor Goodies ice cream. This eliminates option (III). Therefore (A) is correct.

8) C

In paragraph 3, the author writes, "They only make three different flavors..." The word flavors refers to the types of ice cream. Since flavors are things, they are not adjectives. They are nouns. This eliminates option (I). In paragraph 3, the author writes "Goodies makes excellent ice cream." The word excellent is a word that describes ice cream, which is a thing. Therefore this word is an adjective. This supports option (II). In paragraph 3, the author writes, "Every bite of it reminds me of the strawberries that I used to pick behind my old house." Old is a word that describes the house, which is a thing. Therefore this word is an adjective. This supports option (III). Therefore (C) is correct.

9) D

In paragraph 3 the author says, "I would say that the only drawback to Goodies ice cream is that they only make three different flavors." Choice (D) is correct. The passage does not provide information to support choices (A), (B), and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.

10) A

In the last paragraph, the author says, "You can buy a whole carton of Twinkle ice cream for $4.50. That's only two weeks' allowance for me." Since $4.50 is two weeks' allowance, we can determine one week's allowance by dividing $4.50 by 2. This means the author's allowance is $2.25 a week. Therefore (A) is correct. The passage does not provide information to support choices (B), (C), and (D). Therefore they are incorrect.

11) D

In paragraph 1 the author tell us that he or she has been trying to decide which of four different ice cream manufacturers is the best. Then the author discusses what is good about each manufacturer and what is bad about some of them. Since each manufacturer has something good about it, we can understand that the author thinks that each is good for different reasons. This means (D) is correct. (A) is incorrect because the author does not mention any weaknesses about Randolph Farms ice cream. Therefore not each manufacturer has its weaknesses. In addition to number of flavors produced, the author considers taste, price and fun in order to arrive at the best ice cream manufacturer. The author does not rely on number of flavors alone to make his or her decision. This rules out (B) and (C).

12) B

The author uses the most positive words to describe Goodies ice cream. In paragraph 3 the author says that Goodies ice cream is "excellent," "amazing," and "outstanding". Although Goodies only makes 3 flavors, the author loves all of them. According to the author, the only drawback about Goodies ice cream is that "they only make three flavors." We can understand from this information that the author thinks Goodies is the best ice cream manufacturer. Therefore, the author would probably choose Goodies. (B) is correct. While the author does like the Randolph Farms ice cream—a manufacturer who makes "a lot of flavors"—he or she always only gets one flavor. Also, the author says that Randolph Farms ice cream is "very good," but describes Goodies ice cream as "excellent". Since the author enjoys more flavors from Goodies and uses more positive words to describe Goodies, we can understand that the author prefers Goodies, even though he or she also likes Randolph Farms. This means (A) is incorrect. The author only likes only one flavor of Disco ice cream. Moreover, the author uses vaguely positive words to describe them, such as "okay" and "pretty fun." So (C) is incorrect. Since the author describes Twinkle ice cream as "mediocre," the author would be unlikely to choose Twinkle. This rules out (D).

13) D

At the end of the passage, the author writes, "You can buy a whole carton of twinkle ice cream for $4.50. That's only two weeks allowance for me." Two cartons of ice cream cost twice as much as one carton of ice cream. Since it takes two weeks of allowance to buy one carton of ice cream, it will take twice that amount to buy two cartons. Two times two weeks is four weeks. (D) is correct. The passage does not provide information to support choices (A), (B), and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.
