Answers and Explanations

- 1) C
In paragraph 1, we are told, “The United States is a country.” Therefore (C) is correct. The passage does not contain information to support choices (A) and (B). Therefore they are incorrect.
- 2) B
Paragraph 2 tells us, “North Carolina is a state.” Therefore (B) is correct. The passage does not contain information to support choices (A) and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.
- 3) A
In paragraph 3, we learn, “Chapel Hill is a city.” Therefore (A) is correct. The passage does not contain information to support choices (B) and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.
- 4) B
In paragraph 2, the speaker tells us that she lives in the state of North Carolina. In paragraph 3, we learn that the speaker lives in the city of Chapel Hill. From this information, we can understand that the city of Chapel Hill is in the state of North Carolina. In paragraph 2, the speaker tells us that the weather in North Carolina is sunny. If the weather in North Carolina is sunny, then the weather in Chapel Hill must be sunny too. Therefore (B) is correct.

The passage does not contain information to support choices (A), and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.
- 5) B
In paragraph 4, the speaker tells us, “My house is brick.” Therefore (B) is correct. The passage does not contain information to support choices (A) and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.
- 6) A
In paragraph 4, the speaker tells us, “My house is red.” Therefore (A) is correct. The passage does not contain information to support choices (B) and (C). Therefore they are incorrect.
- 7) C
In paragraph 3, when the speaker tells us about Chapel Hill, she says, “It is a city on a hill.” Then she lets us know more about Chapel Hill. She tells us, “It is a city on a small mountain.” From this, we can understand that a small mountain and a hill are the same thing. Therefore (C) is correct.

The passage does not contain information to support choices (A) and (B). Therefore they are incorrect.
