There, Their, and They’re

1) There is used to refer to a place or location.

   Example: I live there.
   • In this sentence, there is used to refer to the place where you live. This could be New York City, for example.

   Example: My car is over there.
   • In this sentence, there is used to refer to the location of your car. This could be in the parking lot, for example.

   Directions: Replace each place or location with there in the following sentences.

   Example: I want to go to the beach. \( \rightarrow \) I want to go there.
   1) I will see you at home. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________
   2) He lives at 102 State St. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________
   3) Jessica was born in Ohio. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________
   4) The car keys are on the table. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________

2) Their is used to show ownership. Their replaces a singular (non-gender) or plural noun.

   Example: This is their apartment.
   • In this sentence, their is used to refer to an apartment that is owned. This could be the apartment owned by the Roberts family, for example.

   Example: The ball is theirs.
   • In this sentence, theirs is used to refer to a ball that is owned. This could be a soccer ball owned by a group of kids who are playing soccer, for example.

   Directions: Use their to show ownership in the following sentences.

   Example: Tom is wearing a jersey of the soccer team. \( \rightarrow \) Tom is wearing their jersey.
   1) The Smith family owns this cat. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________
   2) They are using the computer of the school. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________
   3) I like the music of the band. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________
   4) The bicycles of the store are new. \( \rightarrow \) __________________________

3) They’re is a contraction of the words They and Are.

   Example: They’re my friends.
   • In this sentence, they’re is used as a contraction of the words They and Are.

   Directions: Write three sentences using the contraction they’re.

   Example: I don’t know where they’re going.
   1) __________________________
   2) __________________________
   3) __________________________