

The Future Tense – Future Progressive

Directions: Write the correct form of the future progressive tense using “will”.

- 1) I will be doing (to do) my homework tomorrow.
- 2) We will be riding (to ride) the bus to work this morning.
- 3) He will be eating (to eat) roast beef for dinner.
- 4) At 7:30 tonight, I will be watching (to watch) a movie.
- 5) I hope it will be raining (to rain) at this time tomorrow.
- 6) Jane will not be quitting (to quit) her job on Monday.
- 7) My sister will probably be going (to go) to camp this summer.

Directions: Write the correct form of the future progressive tense using “going”.

- 1) Jess and Billy are going to be acting (to act) in the play this fall.
- 2) It is going to be raining (to rain) this afternoon.
- 3) Yuki is going to be coming (to come) to the movie with us.
- 4) Our family is going to be moving (to move) to Alaska.
- 5) Todd is not going to be having (to have) surgery to repair his knee.
- 6) What time do you think we are going to be going (to go) to the party?
- 7) They are probably going to be running (to run) four miles tomorrow.