

Name _____

Date _____

Final Review

Using the Verb "To be"

Complete the story using the correct form of the verb "to be."

"Today _____ going to be very cold," said the weather man on the TV.
"You need to wear very warm clothes."

He _____ talking in a very low voice. He _____ very serious. "You need to be careful out on the roads," he said. "Two car accidents _____ reported this morning."

Dr. Hayden turned off the T.V. He put on the warmest clothes he had. He put on a sweater, jacket, gloves, socks, boots, and a hat. Then, he went outside. It _____ snowing and the wind _____ blowing. "Wow, it _____ very cold outside," said Dr. Hayden. The weather man was right! He got into his car. He turned the key. The engine came to life. He turned up the heat. He _____ very cold.

There _____ a lot of traffic on the road. The cars _____ going slow. The doctor did not understand why everybody _____ going so slow. "Why _____ all the cars going so slow today?" he said. "They _____ going as fast as usual. Usually they go faster."

He began to think to himself, "Hmmm...If it takes me ten more minutes to get to get to work, then this _____ the longest drive to work I have ever taken!"

Finally, he saw why the cars _____ going so slow. They _____ going so slow because there _____ a car accident!

"Why did this accident happen?" Dr. James said. He drove closer to the accident. He looked out of his window.

"_____ everybody okay here?" he asked.

"Yes, we _____ okay. We had a small car accident, but we _____ okay," they said.

"What did you hit?" asked the doctor.

"A snowman!" they said.

